INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONTRIBUTORS

Preparation of manuscripts

The following guidelines should be followed strictly in submitting the manuscript of the paper.

All manuscripts must be written in English and typed on a good quality (A4) bond paper with double space and sufficient margins (left and top 3.80 cm, right and bottom 2.55 cm) and be submitted in duplicate to the Editor in Chief at the University address stated below. The Editorial Board will arrange review of the article. Decision of the Editorial Board on any article is final.

The manuscript of a full paper or review papers within fifteen typed pages including tables, figures, graphs, etc. while that of a short communication should not exceed six pages.

The manuscript of a full paper that includes tables, figures, etc. should not exceed fifteen typed pages, while that of a short communication should not exceed six pages.

The manuscript should contain the following subtitles in sequence; Title, Abstract, Keywords, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results and Discussion, Acknowledgements, if any, and References. These sub-titles, however, will not be present in case of Short communication.

Title: Title of the paper should be brief and specific. The authors should prepare the manuscript in such a way that there should be a title page with only the title of the paper, the names and address of the authors, and running head on it. The second page should carry the title of the paper with Abstract to be followed by Introduction, etc. without author's name.

Abstract: It should not exceed 200 words. It should include only the gist of the paper, i.e. just the results. Abstract is not the summary and in any case, it should not contain the subject of the materials and methods and/or any descriptive part of the paper.

Keywords: Should not exceed 6 words.

Introduction: It should be concise and include relevant literature and define clearly the objective of the study.

Materials and Methods: Special/standard methods should be cited only as references and should not be described except for the modification which should be stated. No sub-heads should be used.

Results and Discussion: The section should include precise statement of results obtained, figures, tables, and discussion.

Table, Graphs and Figures: The paper should contain minimum number of tables, graphs and figures. However, these should be typed separately. Table title should be on the top of the table and be written as Table 1. Caption for the figures graphs and graphs should be on the bottom of the figure and be written as Fig 1. The same data should not be used in both the tables and figures or graphs. The graphs and figures should be drawn in indelible ink on tracing paper and properly be labeled with the help of a letter set. The figures and graphs should be properly labeled with bold, solid lines so that these can stand reduction up to half or less of the original. The photographs should be submitted on glossy paper. Legend of the graphs and figures should be typed and given separately at the end of text.

The Journal authority will bear the cost of black and white photographs. The authors (S) will have to pay the cost if color photograph is needed.

The references and scientific names are extremely important. The authors must be sure about the correctness of citations and spellings.

Citation style: In the text, references should be cited within brackets quoting author's surname and the year of publication in the appropriate place. Two or more references when put within the same bracket should be separated by a comma. For example, (Khan, 2005), (Parvin and Zakia, 2009) and (Rahman, 2010), salinity is widely (Khan et al., 2002); (Parvez and Rahim, 2004; Rafi, 2005), results are partially agree well with the findings of (Harun, 2010 and Akther, 2011). Units of measurements to be used as SI units.

References: References should be arranged alphabetically according to author's surname at the end of the paper. Names of journals and books should be in italics giving edition, year of publication and name of the publishers. Examples:

Islam MS, Islam MR and Rahman MM. 2015. Incompatibility relationship in wild housefly Musca domestica L. collected from different parts of Bangladesh. Journal of Asiatic Society of Bangladesh (Science). 29:23-30.

Author contribution: Please include an Authors' contributions section before the Acknowledgements.

For the Authors' contributions' we suggest the following kind of format (please use initials to refer to each author's contribution): AB carried out the molecular genetic studies, participated in the sequence alignment and drafted the manuscript. JY carried out the immunoassays. MT participated in the sequence alignment. ES participated in the design of the study and performed the statistical analysis. FG conceived of the study and participated in its design and coordination. All authors read and approved the final manuscript.

Acknowledgements: All contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship should be listed in an 'acknowledgements' section. Examples of those who might be acknowledged include a person who provided purely technical help, writing assistance, or a department chair who provided only general support.

The author (s) must submit one printed copy of the revised paper and soft copy in the mail (bujournalofbioscience@gmail.com).

Plagiarism policy: Plagiarism software screening software will be used before review the manuscript.

Final galley proof will be sent author (s) and is expected to be returned within five days as notice. No major alternations or additions in the text are desirable at this stage.

Papers should be submitted in duplicate to: Dr. Subroto Kumar Das, Associate Editor, Barisal University Journal of Bio-Sciences, Department of Botany, University of Barisal, Barisal-8200, Bangladesh.

Off- Prints: Author(s) of each paper is/are entitled to get 10 off-prints free of cost.

Declaration: While submitting a paper the authors are to sign a declaration to the effect that (i) the work reported has been carried out by them and they jointly prepared the manuscript; (ii) they take public responsibility for the contents of the paper; (iii) the paper has not been published before in any referred scientific journal or has not been submitted to such journal for publication; and (iv) they accord consent to the Barisal University Journal to publish the paper.
